Yiannis Stylianides was born in Cyprus in 1969. Upon completion of his architectural studies in the United States in 1995, he returned to Cyprus and has worked as a self-employed architect. In 1999, he started again to intensely create works of art to express his feeling, thoughts and experiences. He has an equal passion for sculpting and painting. The whole process of creating a painting or a sculpture takes him out of the daily routine into a beautiful and positive world that he wants to share with everyone through his art. The whole process begins as a visual concept that he works on mentally until he is ready to execute the piece.

He finds very fascinating to explore the use of new techniques and materials in the creative process. One of his main goals is to create art using original methods and unique combinations of materials not applied before. One of the methods he created is a groundbreaking process he developed and calls "Constructive Torching". He creates his own composition of paints and then uses a blow torch to apply the paint on wood. This method creates a fascinating texture and gives the painting a three dimensional quality that allows the viewer to see the painting the same way from all angles. Another series is his signature sculpted wood panels depicting plan views of cities influenced from his architectural background. His fiberglass and wood sculptures mostly revolve around the human body expressing different feelings. He also has a series of painted wood sculptures inspired by nature. The artist uses reclaimed wood and completely transforms it into beautiful works of art. In this exhibition for the first time he will present a complete series of wood sculptures executed with the "Constructive Torching" technique.

His art work is in many private and public collections in Cyprus, United States of America, United Kingdom, Dubai, Italy, Monaco, France, Qatar, and Greece. A painting of his Cities series has been featured in Saatchi Gallery in London and another one is in the collection of the CBC. Currently several of his large paintings are installed in the main lobby of the Hilton hotel in CY. His latest solo exhibition in Seattle USA was called by the prestigious Artnet Worldwide Corporation as a "must see exhibition".
